

Outbound Financial Agreement - 2021-22

District 6220 Rotary Outbound Fee = $5600.

Fee covers all of the following:

- Round trip airfare: 12 month open ticket to any country in the world where the student may be assigned, with one date change allowed for the return ticket. Departures must be made from a major airport or primary regional hub (Green Bay, Wausau, Marquette, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, or Chicago). Exceptions must be approved and may incur additional charges to be paid by Outbound student family.
- Visa fee: Where required
- Health insurance: Central States Rotary insurance and any mandatory in-country insurance.
- Virtual training for student and parents
- Central States RYE Conference – if in-person training held (Grand Rapids, MI- July): Student registration, meals, accommodations, and transportation as needed.
- Blazer: Reimbursed with receipts up to $75
- Required study books: Reimbursed with receipts
- Personal ID cards, name badge, Central States patch, Central States pin.
- Mandatory language camps/training: Costs that are incurred directly by students or parents will be reimbursed. The claim (with receipt) must be received by the 6220 Vice Chair before October 31st of the year the student leaves on exchange.
- District rebound retreat (if offered): Summer following completion of a successful exchange

Students are provided with free room and board, education at no cost, and a modest monthly allowance (equal to about US $75) while in the host country.

Other Costs

The one price fee does not include:

- Passport
- Additional date changes for return airline ticket beyond the one change allowed
- Medical and dental exams required as part of the application process
- Travel expenses and additional processing (notary, Apostille, etc) for visa acquisition
- Required emergency fund up to US $500
- Excursions
- School uniforms (where required)
- Incidental living expenses (personal host country travel, extra-curricular school activities, entertainment, postage, phone calls, clothing and personal items, etc.)
- Any costs related to an early return home or other unusual costs of the student will be the responsibility of the student's parents.
- A major increase in airfares or other costs that could not be covered with Youth Exchange Committee reserve funds could possibly result in a small additional cost to each student.
